The academic assistance gift expanded my learning experience and allowed me to grow as a person."

Meet ida

The Ida C. Koran programs were established and funded by Ecolab's first employee, Ida Koran. Her generous spirit has helped many individuals receive support in times of need.

The Ida C. Koran programs are named in honor of Ecolab's first employee, Ida Koran, who was hired in 1923 and worked for the company for 44 years. Ida was committed to Ecolab and thought of it as her family. When she died, she left a trust fund to be used to make loans and grants to help employees in need. Her legacy has left a lasting impact that continues to touch the lives of Ecolab employees and retirees around the world.

In times of need,
Ida is here to help.

Ecolab is proud to partner with Ida C. Koran, which is a global resource available for Ecolab employees and retirees experiencing unplanned or unexpected events causing financial hardship. Academic assistance opportunities are also available for dependent children of global employees and retirees who are pursuing post-secondary education.
